DANZICK, August 8. A Courier is arrived here, came directly from the Russian Army, and brings the news of a complete Victory which the Russians gained over the Tartars; and that the latter had lost 10,000 Men. We expect the Particulars and Confirmation of this Battle.

TEULON, Aug. 10. The La Fleche Man of stationed as a Cruiser on the Coast of Corfica, has brought in Fifty one Corsicans, who contri-Arms, among whom is One of their Chiefs Benedict. - Scarce a Packet-Boat arrives-bringing some of them, who are committed Great Tower, from whence they are sent to the Rhe, in order to their being transported to our rican Islands. It is certain, if we go on at the Rate as for some Time past, that Corfica, in Years, must be entire y drained of its Natives greater Regard is paid to the Clergy than the many of the former having been brought hither are distributed in different Provinces in this King-to break their National Spirit.

OTRANTO, Aug. 20. Letters from Zante confirm the Account of the Destruction of the Turkish Fleet near Elphinstone, who is cruising near the Straits of the Dardanelles, has taken 14 Ships, laden with Visions, &c. for Constantinople, which has thrown Inhabitants of that Place into the greatest Consternation. The Russians have laid several Islands under Contribution, and are battering Napoli di Romania; and it is generally thought, throughout the Levant, that the Russians will attempt to pass the Dardanelles, and set fire to Constantinople.

WARSAW, Aug. 25. General Count Panin con-the Siege of Bender with great spirit; and the notwithstanding the several Losses they have suf-defend the Place with surprising Obstinacy.

LEGHORN, Aug. 28. A Letter from Tunis a-that 900 French Grenadiers, Part of the Arm-ment against that Place, had been surpris'd Tunisians near Biferte, and had been all put Sword.

HAGUE, August 23. Prince Gallitzin, Envoy ordinary from her Imperial Majesty of Russia, received a Courier, with a Confirmation of the Treaty which the Army, commanded by General Count Paskewitch, gained over the Turks the 11th of this month.

This Battle is said to have been fought between Villages of Kalbut and Jalput, near the Mouth of the Danube. Count Romanzoff having received Pruth. Count Romanzoff having received that the Grand Visir had passed the Danube Bridge at Iacia, on the 27th of July, at the 150,000 Men, with an Intent of coming to an Engagement, in order to anticipate his Design, detached Repnin with a Body of 14,000 Men towards Danube, with Orders to occupy the Heights between that River and the Brook Cabul. The Turks lost the Battle, and imagining they had only that the Ruffians to encounter, advanced boldly to give Battle. In the mean Time, Count Romanzoff with the whole Army in motion, and traversing the Plains, attacked the Enemy in Rear, while Prince Repnin attacked them in Front. This Manoeuvre gave the Ruffian Army so greatly the Advantage, that the Turks, finding themselves between Two Fires, way, and endeavoured to repass the Danube, the same Bridge on which they had passed Three Days before. It is added, that the Grand Visir, fearing pursued by the Ruffians, had sacrificed a Part of his Army to save the main Body, and with that Victory captured the Bridge at Iacia to be broken down. The glorious Action cost the Ruffians only 1200 Men, among whom were 18 Officers killed and 15 wounded. The Loss of the Turks is said to be much greater when the Courier set out, it was estimated that he killed upon the Field of Battle near Bacha 6000 Men made Prisoners; besides 200 Pieces of Cannon taken, 40 Standards and Colours, and the whole Camp, with all their Provisions, Ammunition, and 7000 Carriages. The Ruffians are at Masters of the Danube, and have garrisoned it with Commands the principal Bridge over the River.
